Description

Little Dry Run Road runs through a quiet corner of Johnson County, about a mile off Roan Creek Road in Butler. This two-bedroom, one-bath home sits on nearly half an acre of part-wooded land with Watauga Lake and Cherokee National Forest both just a few minutes down the road.
The home has been maintained and updated over time. Windows are double pane, flooring has been replaced throughout, and the roof is metal. The driveway is paved, a storage building is on the property, and fiber optic internet is already run to the house, a real advantage for a rural address.

Inside is straightforward and functional. The eat-in kitchen includes a dishwasher, electric range, and refrigerator. Heat pump handles heating and cooling. Public water. County taxes run $143 a year.

At $124,900, this works as a primary residence, a mountain getaway, or a short term rental. The proximity to Watauga Lake and the national forest puts you close to some of the best outdoor access in the region.
