One of the things you'll notice right away is just how much room this home gives you. The huge dining room has plenty of space for a big farmhouse table and feels made for family dinners, holidays and having everyone together. There's also an extra-large laundry room with room for storage, shelving, an extra freezer or just keeping all of those everyday things tucked away and organized.

Outside, you have over an acre of land with room to spread out and enjoy a little more breathing room. There is also a separately owned singlewide currently located on the property, providing $300 per month in lot rent. The owner of the singlewide is willing to sell it separately for an additional $20,000 if the new owner would like to purchase it and keep it in place as a rental.

With a roomy interior, a large lot and a little monthly income already coming in, this property offers an opportunity you don't find every day. Come take a look and see the possibilities for yourself.

Please do not access or use the deck, as it is currently in poor condition.
