Description

Come make your own History in the heart of Downtown Greeneville!

On the top of the ridge above Greeneville and Highland School sits this ready to go lot with the water tap already in place. From the previous stoop you can envision your front porch sitting and the views of the mountains after the leaves have fallen from the trees. Property is zoned R3 which gives you some greater flexibility on home size within the lot while being steps away from the school.

This is an investment you won't want to miss.
