Description

A picturesque creek and a covered front porch set the scene at this charming 1955 cottage in the heart of historic Abingdon. This one-level home offers two bedrooms, one bath, hardwood floors, and abundant natural light. A welcoming living room opens to a dining room with built-in bookshelves, while butcher block countertops add warmth to the cottage kitchen. The sunroom has space for laundry, a practical mudroom, and a collection of plants. This one-level cottage is comfortable, charming, and conveniently located to the heart of town.

Stroll downtown for coffee, dinner, local shops, galleries, and seasonal events along historic Main Street. Spend a Saturday morning at the Abingdon Farmers Market, catch a show at the Barter Theatre, or start a bike ride at the Abingdon trailhead of the Virginia Creeper Trail. After a day around town, come home to an evening on the porch swing as you overlook the creek.
