The primary house has so much to offer! The upper story features a great room flooded with natural light and is anchored by a stone fireplace. Hardwood floors flow throughout this level. The great room is open to the kitchen and breakfast area. Plenty of room for you and your guests in this space. Step through the french doors and take in the views from the 3 season sun-room. The sunroom overlooks one of the ponds and the fenced in back yard. The main living space divides that bedrooms with the primary ensuite with dedicated office on one side and 2 bedrooms, hall bath and sitting area on the other. The lower level has a spacious multi-purpose room currently being used as a game space and den. A wood burning fireplace in this area can keep you warm and cozy on those cold winter nights. Two additional bedrooms , combination laundry/full bath and a 2 car garage make up the lower level. Outdoor space is abundant in the primary space with a patio on the lower level and 44-foot-long deck on the upper level. A separate 2 car garage with guest/ in-law suite or housing for your farm hand is just steps away from the primary house. The 720 sf in-law suite has a full bath, separate laundry area, bedroom and kitchen living combination. A back deck overlooking a pond is off the main living space. A 30x60 farm shop with storage area and workshop is located just beyond the fenced in back yard. The workshop has a separate storage area that is stubbed out to add a half bath. Just outside the farm shop is a barn area with stalls for animals. An implement shed is just beyond the barn area. An additional shed is out near the back pond. Fencing in along the back perimeter of the property and divides the back acreage into separate fields.
