Description

Nestled in the picturesque mountains of Northeast Tennessee & located in the gated community of RedTail Mountain, known for its scenic views & peaceful environment our custom contemporary home harmonizes modern design with the natural beauty of its surroundings. The home opens to a generous tile foyer, setting the tone for the rest of the residence and offering easy access throughout. The modern galley kitchen stretches out in a sleek linear design that emphasizes simplicity and efficiency. Its layout features two parallel runs of cabinetry & countertops creating a corridor-like space that's both practical & visually streamlined. The living room features hardwood flooring, built-in shelving flanking a gas log fireplace, & a wall of windows offering views of the wraparound deck & the outdoors. Imagine a seasonal room that seamlessly connects the kitchen & living room, designed to immerse you in nature's beauty. Identical windows line the room offering a panoramic view of the surrounding landscape, whether it is the vibrant green of summer or the golden hues of autumn. The primary bedroom is positioned at the farthest corner of the home, creating a private, secluded retreat within the house. This design blends functionality with a serene sense of escape, featuring built in elements & a spacious walk-in closet enhancing both comfort & convenience. The adjacent ensuite ensures an imitate personal space. Bedroom two, with convenient access to a full bath, is also located on the main -perfect for hosting guests & entertaining family or friends. Journey to the lower level, where a spacious den offers the flexibility to function as a third bedroom. This level also features a large bathroom & a walkout to a deck that spans the entire rear of the home. A two-car attached garage is also a feature, providing easy access to the home & added convenience for everyday living. Near Boone NC, Lake Watauga & all Tri City attractions. Buyer/buyer's agent to verify all information.
