Description

Experience the beauty and versatility of this 15.675-acre property featuring breathtaking mountain views and a private pond that adds to its serene charm. The land offers gentle slopes with mostly level areas and excellent road frontage, providing easy access and multiple building options.

This parcel includes a well and septic tank from a previous home, offering valuable infrastructure already in place. The acreage size may also qualify for the Greenbelt program, if other requirements are met—potentially reducing property taxes.

Whether you envision your own mini-farm, a private estate, or plan to subdivide into multiple lots, this property offers endless opportunities. Enjoy the tranquility of country living with the convenience of being close to town, schools, and major highways—making this the perfect East Tennessee retreat.
