Description

Escape to your own private retreat tucked into the Cherokee National Forest! This primitive cabin offers the perfect blend of peace, privacy, and adventure. Enjoy creek access right from your property—ideal for relaxing by the water's edge or casting a line for trout. Outdoor enthusiasts will love the endless nearby activities: discover hiking trails and scenic swimming holes throughout the Paint Creek Recreation Area, spend the day kayaking and tubing along the French Broad River, and explore the charming town of Hot Springs, NC, just a few miles away. With a RV hookup already in place, there's plenty of room to invite friends and family for a memorable getaway in the mountains. This cabin is a true nature lover's dream!
