Description

MOTIVATED SELLER SELLER PAYING 8 K TOWARD BUYERS CLOSING FEESBeautifully updated home located just off Highway 11W on a private drive that crosses over a peaceful creek. This property offers a gorgeous yard, a large patio with a brand-new covered outdoor area (with electricity), and plenty of space for relaxing or entertaining.

The upper level features a spacious open floor plan with updated flooring, trim, and a fully renovated kitchen with granite countertops, new cabinets, and dining area. A balcony off the kitchen provides an ideal grilling space. Upstairs includes 4 bedrooms and 2.5 baths including 1 master suites , the master bath is drywalled, wired and plumbed and ready for final touches to your style. Additional features include a full guest bath with a private laundry pantry, ample storage, one balcony off the kitchen perfect for grilling and a second balcony with stairs leading to a fenced lot.

The lower level offers a large living area with trace ceilings, a gas fireplace, and a coffee bar area that could be converted into a kitchenette--perfect for guests, gatherings, or multi-generational living. A downstairs master bedroom, full bath, walk-in closet, and multiple storage areas provide added convenience. French doors open to the covered patio overlooking the private, creekside backyard.

Rarely does a home with this much space, privacy, and convenience hit the market. Five beds , three and a half baths, almost two acres of outdoor space --right in the middle of Kingsport and Bristol .

Well-maintained with numerous recent upgrades, this home offers luxury, versatility and a peaceful setting just minutes from town.

Home is located within a designated floodplain ;however, it has NEVER experienced flooding during current or previous ownership. The floodplain designation is due to a small creek located at the front of the property, which sits several hundred feet away from the home.
