This property offers a great opportunity for buyers looking to renovate, rebuild, or repurpose in a convenient in-town location. While the structure will need work, the major value is already in place with electric, water, and sewer connected, saving both time and money compared to starting from scratch. The land provides flexibility for a variety of uses, and low local taxes help keep long-term holding costs down. Located within a ten-minute walk to downtown, you'll enjoy easy access to shops, dining, and everyday conveniences. With utilities already established and a walkable location that's hard to find at this price point, this property is ideal for investors, builders, or buyers with vision looking to add value in a growing small-town setting. Property is being sold as-is. Bring your plans and creativity and unlock the potential this location has to offer.
