Description

Fort Blackmore, Virginia -- Here's a great opportunity to own this secluded 132.445 acre farm with so much to offer. There's a two or three bedroom farmhouse that is ideal for weekend get-togethers, or your year around home. There is plenty of pasture land for livestock with a spring and flowing creek, an enormous barn and several outbuildings. Lots of sites for crops, and imagine all the possibilities. Trail riding and wildlife are plentiful, with trails around the majority of the property. The owner had pastured cattle and had lived in the home for several years. Property is accessed by a thirty foot deeded right of way. If you're looking for privacy, farming opportunity, or even your retirement, this could be the one. Recent survey confirms actual acreage and price adjustment.
