Description

A wooded 23.93-acre tract with a year-round creek running through it, this property offers the kind of privacy, natural beauty, and versatility that's hard to find. Mature timber surrounds the land, creating a peaceful setting ideal for hunting, weekend retreats, or building a secluded cabin or full-time home tucked into the trees. A road is already present on the property, providing convenient access to various potential building sites and making it easy to explore the acreage. With its blend of woods, water, and quiet seclusion, this land is a perfect canvas for anyone seeking space, recreation, and a truly private mountain escape. Deed Restrictions: No junkyards, no race or dirt tracks or courses for motorcycles or recreational vehicles. No commercial swine or poultry operations or any slaughter houses of any type or commercial kennels of any type. No automobiles shall be stored or kept on land without current registration. Borders National Forest.
