Description

A versatile acreage tract that connects directly to the Spear Head Trail, offering immediate access to one of the area's most popular ATV and side-by-side riding systems. A large, flat area has already been cleared and recently graveled, creating a ready-to-use pad for your camper, tiny home, or a storage building for all your recreational vehicles. The seller states that public water, sewer and electricity are available at the road, giving you valuable utility options for future development. Whether you're looking for a convenient trailhead base, a weekend getaway spot, or a practical storage site for your machines, this property is primed and ready for your plans.
