Description

Looking for a simple, low maintenance living without giving up quality ? With 1 Bedroom + 1 Bonus Room, this beautiful new custom construction home offers quality craftsmanship and thoughtful finishes throughout. Featuring approximately 1,475 finished square feet on 0.4 acre of land, this home includes an open-concept living area, granite countertops, stainless-steel appliances, an attached garage, and a relaxing back deck perfect for enjoying East Tennessee evenings. The home shows beautifully in person, with thoughtful design and quality finishes throughout.

The flexible bonus room with a closet provides ideal space for an office, guest area, hobby room, or workout space. The home offers 2 full bathrooms with two modern walk-in showers, including one with a luxurious jetted whirlpool tub. Additional highlights include natural gas heating with electric central air conditioning, providing comfort and energy efficiency, no city tax only county tax (Tax has not yet been assessed). This home offers privacy with natural beauty, enhanced by the convenience of fiber-optic internet, making it ideal for remote work or streaming.

Set in the charming town of Unicoi, the property offers quiet mountain living with easy access to Johnson City, Erwin, Elizabethton, and Asheville. The region is known for exceptional outdoor recreation, with nearby access to the Cherokee National Forest, the Blue Ridge Mountains, hiking, biking, fishing, camping, and ski resorts such as Beech Mountain and Sugar Mountain. A local recreational shooting range is also located nearby. This is a rare opportunity to own a well-built custom home in a desirable East Tennessee setting surrounded by natural beauty and outdoor adventure.
