Description

This beautifully restored historic stone home sits on 3 peaceful acres just 2 miles from downtown Damascus and 9 miles from Abingdon. Enjoy the perfect blend of privacy and convenience in a quiet neighborhood with scenic surroundings.

Inside, you'll find original hardwood floors, three stone fireplaces with gas logs, and a fully renovated open-concept kitchen featuring granite countertops, pot filler, stainless steel appliances, and farmhouse sink. A Schlage keyless entry opens to a cozy patio with covered pergola, grill, and outdoor dining space--ideal for relaxing or entertaining.

The spacious living room connects to a large covered porch. The home offers 3-4 bedrooms (including a private ground-level entry room), three updated bathrooms, and basement plumbing ready for a fourth. The partially finished basement includes a laundry room, bar area, wine/canning room, and a mechanical room with a large safe.

Upgrades include Lutron lighting, PEX plumbing, a dual heating system (gas/electric HVAC and an exterior wood stove), dual water heaters, two freezers, and a Generac backup generator. Most windows are updated, with select originals preserved for character.

Outdoor Highlights:
Semi-paved circular driveway with rear access 24-ft above-ground pool (plumbed for power and heat) Mature Orchard, large garden, 6x8 greenhouse, and water feature Firepit, 2-story outbuilding, workshop with loft and freezer. Barn with pasture, chicken coop, and underground utilities (ready for hookup) Children's play area with playhouse and playground Security system with cameras and high-speed Point Broadband Internet. With frontage on three roads, no nearby development, and no storm damage history, this home offers long-term peace of mind. A rare combination of historic charm, thoughtful updates, and stunning outdoor space--schedule your private tour today!
