Description

All-brick 4-bedroom, 3-bathroom home on a private cul-de-sac in Jefferson City, Tennessee, with an inground swimming pool, outdoor kitchen, gazebo, and firepit. This Jefferson County property sits tucked back in the trees with no through traffic, giving you the kind of quiet that's genuinely hard to find this close to town.
The main level has been significantly updated over the past five years. The kitchen features quartz countertops, a large island, stainless wall oven, built-in microwave, new hood vent, new kitchen sink, and white cabinetry with a door that opens onto the back deck. Rich hardwood flooring runs through the main living areas and into the formal dining room, which gets great natural light through an arched picture window. The primary bedroom is spacious and serene, with plantation shutters, arched windows, and a completely renovated en suite bath with new tile, a new tub, and Carrara marble countertops. A second main-level bathroom also features Carrara marble countertops. A dedicated home office sits just off the kitchen near the laundry room. The attached 2-car garage has new doors and openers. At the back of the house, an enclosed sunroom offers a comfortable year-round space to relax while staying connected to the wooded views outside.

Downstairs, the finished basement was built for entertaining. A large family room with a fireplace and gas logs anchors the space. A dedicated billiard room and a built-in bar area give you room to spread out, and a third full bathroom plus two bonus rooms round out the lower level, giving guests, a home gym, a craft room, or a hobby space plenty of options.

On the other side of the driveway, the pool area is its own destination. The fenced inground pool has a new liner with wifi connectivity, and the surrounding space includes an outdoor kitchen, a gazebo with a new metal roof, and a firepit. It's set up to be a full outdoor living area separate from the house, which makes it feel even more intentional.

The 50-year architectural roof was installed four years ago. Located in Jefferson City, Tennessee, minutes from Cherokee Lake and Douglas Lake access points, and an easy drive to Morristown, Jefferson Memorial Hospital, and I-40. If you've been searching for a private, updated, move-in-ready home in Jefferson County, Tennessee with a pool and room for everyone, this one checks every box.
