Description

For those who love to entertain, appreciate exceptional garage space, and want a home that has been meticulously cared for, 5005 Preston Park Drive delivers on every level. Immaculately maintained by owners who have taken great care to keep the property in excellent condition, this remarkable residence offers more than 7,000 square feet of living space, approximately 3.3 acres, mountain views, a private pool and pool house, and four garage spaces in one of Kingsport's most established communities. Offering remarkable privacy while remaining just minutes from town, this six-bedroom, six-and-a-half-bath residence is designed for those who value space, flexibility, and exceptional indoor-outdoor living.

A gracious foyer opens to spacious, light-filled living areas with an easy flow for both everyday life and entertaining. The main-level primary suite provides privacy and convenience with a generous ensuite bath, while the heart of the home brings together the kitchen, casual dining, and living areas with direct access to the backyard. A formal dining room, dedicated home office, powder room, and three-car main-level garage complete the first floor.

Step outside and the property takes on an entirely different character. The beautifully landscaped backyard feels like a private park, with a level lawn, wooded surroundings, expansive patio, and swimming pool creating a secluded setting for summer afternoons, weekend gatherings, and evenings at home. The adjoining pool house features its own lounge space, kitchen area, and full bath, making the outdoor living space as functional as it is inviting.

Upstairs are four generously sized bedrooms and three full baths, including a private ensuite, plus additional flex space ideal for a second office, study, or sitting area. A finished third-level bonus room provides even more versatility.

The finished lower level offers tremendous possibilities for guests, extended family, recreation, or multi-generational living. With its own garage, separate driveway and exterior access, this level includes a second living area, dining space, kitchenette, bedroom, and full bath, along with additional space for a home gym, theater, game room, or hobbies.

Two separate driveways and four total garage spaces provide outstanding parking, storage, and accessibility. From the mountain views out front to the peaceful, wooded setting surrounding the backyard, the property offers a sense of space and privacy that can be difficult to find this close to Kingsport.

Located just minutes from the Kingsport Greenbelt, Exchange Place, shopping, dining, and everyday amenities, 5005 Preston Park Drive offers the scale of an estate property without sacrificing convenience. Come experience the setting, space, and possibilities this home has to offer.
