Description

Versatile 3.19± acre property offering a rare combination of flat, usable land and existing utilities already in place. This property features multiple homesite opportunities with electric, county water, and septic hookups available, making it ideal for building, placing manufactured homes, or investment use.

The land is mostly cleared and level, providing an excellent layout for multiple structures, family setups, or rental potential. A gravel drive and established homesite area offer a head start for future development, saving time and cost.

Additional structures are present on the property and may be used for storage or repurposed depending on buyer needs.

Located with easy road access while still offering a private, country setting, this property is a unique opportunity for buyers looking for flexibility, usability, and value.
