Description

Looking for a charming cabin in the mountains of Southwest Virginia? Don't miss this one!

Tucked away on 6+ picturesque acres surrounded by rolling countryside, mature trees, and peaceful mountain scenery, this custom-built log cabin offers the kind of setting and character that's becoming harder and harder to find. Blending rustic charm with thoughtful updates and modern comforts, this one-of-a-kind property feels like your own private retreat while still being conveniently located just minutes from town and Emory & Henry University.

Highlighted with 4 large bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, and over 2,900+ sqft of thoughtfully designed living space plus a partially finished walk-out basement, this home was built with comfort, functionality, and timeless craftsmanship in mind. From the moment you walk through the door, you're greeted by soaring wood ceilings, rich hardwood floors, solid wood doors, custom built-ins, and a stunning double-sided floor-to-ceiling stone fireplace that anchors the heart of the home and creates the perfect cozy cabin atmosphere.

Designed for both everyday living and entertaining, the updated kitchen features custom handmade cabinetry, stainless steel appliances, abundant prep space, and a functional layout that flows seamlessly into the dedicated dining area, living room, and offers direct access to the secluded screened porch overlooking the property.

The main-level primary suite serves as a true private retreat, complete with a spacious ensuite featuring a walk-in tile shower, clawfoot soaking tub, double vanities, oversized walk-in closet, and convenient access to the laundry room with exterior entry. Upstairs and downstairs provide plenty of additional space for family, guests, home offices, hobbies, or recreation areas, while the partially finished basement offers flexibility for future expansion or storage.

Outside is where this property truly shines. Offering a rare blend of open greenspace and wooded privacy, the land provides endless opportunities for kids and pets to roam, evenings around a firepit, gardening, animals, future workshops or detached garages, or simply unwinding and enjoying the peaceful scenery that makes Southwest Virginia so special. Additional highlights include a whole-house generator, wood-burning stove, wraparound driveway, covered front porch, stone foundation, and classic log exterior with shake siding accents.

Whether you're looking for a full-time residence, mountain getaway, second home, or simply a place to slow down and enjoy life a little more, this property checks all the boxes. Priced to sell at $549K, call today to schedule your private showing before it's gone!
