Description

Step into a piece of history with this one-of-a-kind property in Norton! Originally built as a schoolhouse in the early 1900s and later serving as a church, this truly unique home has been thoughtfully converted into a charming residential retreat full of character and personality. Situated on approximately 0.57 acres with the river nearby, the setting offers both tranquility and small-town charm. Inside, you'll find a move-in ready interior featuring 2 bedrooms, 1 bath, and a spacious kitchen perfect for gathering and entertaining. Recent updates include newer roof and Mini-Split heating/cooling systems along with all new electrical and plumbing, giving peace of mind while preserving the property's historic appeal. Quirky, distinctive, and unlike anything else on the market--this is your chance to own a truly memorable home!
