Description

Hey out here in the Camp Creek community you will find a winding concrete driveway leading to a private setting with a handsome 2-story log home located on 30 acres (you can't see it from the road). This home has a southern exposure with impressive mountain views. The land has a balance of open land and woodland areas. This home is constructed of square hand hewn pine logs and open timber type construction. Now to go inside, this home is warm and inviting with log walls, open framing, oak flooring and Pella windows framing the view in. You will find the dining area perfect for family style table with benches and chairs. The kitchen has plenty of Corian counter space with beautiful Kraftmaid cabinets.

Living room has vaulted ceilings, stacked stone fireplace, large windows open the view of the Camp Creek Bald in the Appalachian Mountains. The main floor area also features primary bedroom with his and her closets, full bathroom with shower, vanity and two washers and one dryer. To the rear of the fireplace and the upstairs open balcony and two large bedrooms and full bath, and loads of storage. Additional the basement is perfect for separate living quarters for any family member with den/living room with stacked stoned fireplace, kitchen, bedroom, full bath, walk in closet area and storage areas. The area considered as a bedroom is currently being used as an office. Outside and enjoy the covered back porch and the scenic views from the wrap around porch. Other features of this property include three car bay carport and with two additional bays for motor home or camper. Wouldn't someone special in your family be interested in an approx 1,500 sq ft workshop, garage and the implement shed? Even more extras include a 250 gallon propane tank for the generator and fireplaces. Workshop and garage has 100 amp electric service. For heating and cooling home as a 5 ton Trane Heat Pump. 60 gallons hot water heater, radon abatement system, fenced in dog area, possible chicken coop area, camper 30 amp hook-up. If you like walking in the woods there is plenty of acres for you to explore.
