Description

Rarely does a property combine the character of a log home, approximately five wooded acres, exceptional privacy, and a unique golf course setting--all just minutes from Greeneville City Limits. Portions of the property border the #2 green and the #1 tee box of Andrew Johnson Golf Club, creating peaceful views and a setting that is difficult to duplicate.

Expansive covered porches stretch across the full length of both the front and rear of the home, offering inviting spaces to relax, entertain, and enjoy the surrounding woods throughout the year. Beautiful stonework, log construction, a concrete driveway, and the tranquil natural setting create an unforgettable first impression from the moment you arrive.

Step inside to a warm and welcoming interior filled with exposed beams, rich wood walls, oversized living spaces, and the authentic log-home character buyers love. The spacious living room is anchored by an impressive stone propane-gas fireplace, creating a striking focal point and comfortable gathering place for family and friends.

The home offers a total of four bedrooms, including a main-level primary bedroom with convenient access to a full bathroom. Upstairs, you will find three additional bedrooms, a full bathroom with a relaxing soaking tub, and an additional finished room that could serve as a home office, playroom, hobby room, media room, or guest space.

The finished room in the basement provides even more versatility and includes its own adjoining full bathroom, making it ideal for guests, recreation, a workout area, a private office, or additional living space.

The kitchen features abundant cabinetry, generous preparation space, a large walk-in pantry, and an easy flow into the dining and living areas. Additional amenities include central vacuum, a wood stove, a partially unfinished basement, garage storage, enclosed storage beneath the porch, and a detached storage building.

Whether you are searching for a private retreat, room to entertain, flexible spaces for working or hosting guests, or the distinctive charm of a log home near the golf course, this property offers an exceptional combination of features. Homes with this level of character, acreage, privacy, and convenience are increasingly rare in East Tennessee.
