Description

Whether you're an investor looking for your next rental or a homeowner dreaming of a creekside retreat to call your own, this one deserves a look. This 4bed/2bath, farmhouse is being sold as-is and will need some TLC, but the house has great bones and many of the big-ticket items have already been addressed. The heat pump (2015) has been serviced every year, the septic was emptied last year, breakers were replaced last year, and plumbing has been mostly updated. The 10-year-old roof had its screws updated within the last 5 years, the subfloors have been redone, the water heater has been replaced, and the bathroom is newly remodeled. Sitting right on a creek with stairs leading down to the water, two storage buildings, no flood zone, and an aggressive price point (was recently appraised for over $200,000), this is your chance to build sweat equity while creating the home or cash flow you've always wanted.
