Description

If mountain views were a competition, this cabin would bring home the trophy! Nestled in Gatlinburg's popular Roaring Fork area, this 3 bedroom, 3 bath retreat offers the kind of Smoky Mountain scenery that turns ordinary into extraordinary.

Why settle for 1 level when you can have 3? With about 2500 square feet to explore, this cabin serves up a little something for everyone, from early risers to night owls and everyone in between. Welcome to your new favorite room of the house...the outdoors. Between the sprawling covered decks, crackling outdoor fireplace, relaxing hot tub, 1 acre lot, and mountain views that seem to stretch forever. The mountains don't stop at the front door, they follow you inside. Towering cathedral ceilings and walls of windows flood the space with natural light and spectacular views, while the open concept floorplan makes gatherings effortless. The see through fireplace steals the spotlight, the full sized pool table is ready for game night and the main level master offers a private escape with en suite bath. Perched above it all, the loft offers a cozy mountain escape of its own with a bedroom and private bath, creating a peaceful retreat that's perfect for unwinding. Welcome to the cabins championship arena. Downstairs is where friendly competition turns serious, featuring a pool table, air hockey table, and foosball table all waiting for their next tournament. Because even champions need rest, there is a comfortable bedroom and bath on this level. With spectacular mountain views as your backdrop and beautiful oak hardwood floors tying it all together, this cabin is equal parts mountain retreat and memory making headquarters, the only thing missing is you!
