Description

One Level Living at its best! Enjoy the perfect blend of unrestricted county freedom and historic town charm! Located less than a mile from downtown Jonesborough, this custom-built 2023 home offers spacious one-level living with a fully finished walk-out basement. Bring your RV, your dogs, and your hobbies--with no restrictions and low county-only taxes, this property is designed for the way you want to live.

Thoughtfully designed for easy one-level living, the main floor features a bright, open-concept layout centered around a beautifully appointed kitchen. You'll find leathered granite countertops, black stainless steel appliances, and a spacious island with seating--perfect for everyday meals or hosting friends and family. The kitchen flows naturally into a generous dining area with room for a full-sized table, complemented by durable LVP flooring and energy-efficient LED lighting throughout.

Built with quality and efficiency in mind, the home includes solid core doors, full-screened windows for seasonal airflow, and a poured concrete Superior Walls foundation with a lifetime warranty. The bathrooms are both stylish and low-maintenance, featuring cultured marble countertops, along with a stunning cultured marble shower in the primary suite.

The finished basement adds valuable living space, offering a cozy carpeted retreat, a full bathroom, and a one-car garage that's perfect for parking or a workshop. Outdoors, you'll enjoy approximately 550 square feet of covered space that can function as a large patio or carport, along with a fenced dog yard and plenty of room for RV or equipment parking.

With no restrictions and only county taxes, this property offers flexibility and convenience in a great location.
