Description

This isn't just a home by the river. It's a lifestyle most people are searching for but rarely find. Set on a permanent foundation along the Nolichucky River in one of Jonesborough's most scenic stretches, this fully renovated home blends modern comfort with a setting that feels like a permanent escape. Rolling farmland, mountain views, and peaceful water frontage create a backdrop that changes beautifully with every season. Inside, everything has already been done. New metal roof, new heat pump, updated appliances, and fresh finishes throughout make this truly move-in ready. The primary suite features a soaking tub designed for quiet moments at the end of the day, while the open layout keeps the home bright and connected to the surrounding views. Outside, a level yard opens directly to river and countryside scenery, creating a private space that feels miles away from everything, yet you're only 15 minutes from downtown Jonesborough.
