Description

This contemporary stunner with gorgeous views is the most perfect blend of modern and rustic! A breath of fresh air from typical design, this shed roof style new construction home known as "The Taylor" will offer aesthetic appeal with functional layout. Situated on .71 acres in a quiet but convenient location, this home offers 3 usable bedrooms (septic permitted for 2), and 2 full bathrooms. Pulling into the driveway, you will notice the gorgeous stone retaining wall that leads to the oversized, 845 square foot garage. This leads to a bonus space that would make a fantastic secondary den or game room. Upstairs, you will fall in love as soon as you crest the top of the stairs at the stunning, light-filled open kitchen and living room. Craftsman cabinetry and soft close drawers line the well-appointed kitchen and an oversized island with ample seating and beautiful quartz countertops. The living room is lined with large windows to allow you to take in the gorgeous views. The striking stone fireplace is the perfect centerpiece in this space. The Primary bedroom also shows off the same soaring ceilings, beautiful views, and fireplace! The en suite bathroom offers double vanities and large walk-in tiled shower. Across the home, in a split floor plan design, you find the other two bedrooms and the other full bathroom with tiled shower/tub combination. Completing the first floor is an oversized mudroom with laundry hookups, sink with storage cabinetry, and pantry. Off the main level, a dramatic wrap around porch was built to draw you outside to enjoy the peace of your surroundings. LP Smart Siding and stone veneer create the perfect exterior both aesthetically and functionally. The thought in build and creative design is apparent throughout this beautiful home and must be seen to be truly appreciated!
