Description

PRICE REDUCED!!! This Two bedroom, two bath, home is located on a dead end street in a planned development. The home features one level living with low entry showers in both of the bathrooms. The primary bath also features a jetted tub and a toilet. There is a one car garage that is attached with extra storage space. The open concept living and dining area gives this home a spacious feel. There is a room at the entry that could be used as a formal living room, sitting room, or an office space and is separated by french doors. In the open living area there is a propane fireplace. The kitchen features black appliances including a stove, refrigerator, dishwasher, microwave and a garbage disposal. Dark granite countertops and wood cabinets complement the look. The home features hardwood floors, tile, and carpet. It was also recently painted inside with a neutral color and is move in ready. There is a private back patio.
