Description

Welcome to 1778 Highway 93 in Fall Branch, Tennessee! This charming 3-bedroom, 1-bath home is situated on approximately 0.52 acres and offers a peaceful setting with plenty of outdoor space to enjoy.

The property features beautiful landscaping, a large 24x30 detached garage, and an additional detached workshop complete with electricity and heat, providing excellent space for hobbies, storage, projects, equipment, or a potential workspace setup. A flowing creek runs through the backyard, adding to the property's natural setting and outdoor appeal.

Inside, you'll find new LVP flooring throughout most of the home along with fresh interior paint, giving the space an updated and refreshed feel. The layout offers a warm and inviting atmosphere that is move-in ready while still allowing room to make it your own.

An additional bonus feature is a bathroom already roughed in within the back right corner of the detached garage, offering added flexibility and future potential for the space.

Conveniently located in Fall Branch and just a short drive from Kingsport, Johnson City, and Bristol, this property offers a balance of accessibility and a more relaxed setting. Whether you're looking for extra workspace, outdoor features, or a property with character and functionality, this one is worth a look. Schedule your showing today!
