Description

Nestled on a dead end road with a gorgeous view of the mountains you will find this beautifully maintained brick rancher. Upon entering the home you will find 10-12 foot vaulted ceilings throughout. In keeping the character of the home the vintage kitchen has been updated with modern appliances and the original copper hardware has been restored. For the chef of the home there is a new large drop in workstation sink. There is a large primary bedroom with full bath and two additional bedrooms as well as another full bathroom. The front entry could be used as an office, bedroom, workout room or whatever flex space you desire! Outside boasts a two car garage with separate storage room, a carport area that could house two cars and a 15X16 custom built outbuilding on a concrete slab with power and separate electrical panel. A beautiful covered fire pit is featured as well for you to sit outside during any type of weather to enjoy! Ample parking in the driveway as well. This is a great opportunity to be in the country yet only 2 minutes to Walmart and various shopping! Home is about 45 minutes from Gatlinburg making it a prime location! Come make this one your own. All information deemed reliable but taken by third party and tax records. Buyers to verify.
