Description

Opportunity awaits on 3.48 unrestricted acres in beautiful Newport, Tennessee! This unique property offers not one, but two homes, creating endless possibilities for investors, multi-generational living, rental income, guest accommodations, or a private family compound. The main residence features approximately 2,424 square feet with 6 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms, providing plenty of space to spread out and make it your own.

The true value lies in the land and versatility of this property. The second home is unfinished and ready for your vision, offering tremendous potential for additional living space, a rental property, workshop, home business, or guest retreat. Surrounded by the peaceful East Tennessee countryside, you'll enjoy room to roam, garden, raise animals, or simply relax and enjoy the privacy that acreage provides.

This property presents an excellent opportunity to add your personal touches while building equity. Whether you're searching for an investment opportunity, homestead, or property with income-producing potential, this rare two-home acreage tract offers flexibility and value that's hard to find.

Bring your ideas and unlock the full potential of this one-of-a-kind East Tennessee property!
