Explore your own private trails, enjoy exceptional hunting opportunities, or simply relax on the large deck taking in the majestic view.
Designed for sustainable country living, the property includes: raised bed garden area, heated greenhouse, fruit trees and shrubs, 2 chicken coops, compost bins, rain barrels, deep well with a Bison deep well hand pump for emergency backup and multiple outbuildings that provide ample space for equipment, livestock, workshops, or storage. 3 fuel tanks, 1,000-gallon propane tank, solar panel system (not installed), Tesla charger and RV electrical hookup convey with the property.
The main house features hardwood floors and wood paneling, a large great room with vaulted ceilings, 3 full, tiled baths, office, walk-in pantry and a large wrap around porch. Primary bedroom has an en-suite bath and walk-in closet. Second bedroom also has an en-suite, full bath. The bonus room is currently being used as an extra bedroom. There is an oversized, attached garage with a Xantrex dual inverter/charger house and well backup battery system (currently disconnected and without batteries), heavy duty storage shelving and a 7550-watt Generac generator that also convey.
Detached garage, finished in 2017, features a huge storage space on the upper floor that could be converted into living space. On the lower floor, there is a 1 bedroom, 1 bath apartment or mother-in-law suite, workshop, and a large built-in fireproof storm shelter/safe room. There is also a shooting range behind the garage.
Property is secured by a locked gate, 1/3 mile driveway, shatter proof windows with 3M safety and security film, cameras and monitored alarm system.
Whether you're dreaming of raising animals, growing your own food, or simply enjoying the serenity of the mountains, this remarkable property offers endless possibilities. Experience stunning seasonal views, unmatched privacy, and the peaceful lifestyle that only East Tennessee can provide--all while remaining within a convenient drive to Rogersville, Greeneville, Tri-Cities Airport, Bristol Motor Speedway, Appalachian Mountains and area lakes and outdoor recreation.
