Description

Southern-inspired architecture, expansive covered porches, a perfectly level landscaped yard, and custom construction define this exceptional 3-bedroom home in Kinkead Estates, Mt. Carmel, TN. With a main-level owner's suite, oversized 2-car garage with workshop, abundant storage, and a cul-de-sac setting with no through traffic, 852 Topeka offers the space and functionality today's buyers are looking for without sacrificing real character.

From the inviting front porch to the covered rear porch and patio, the home embraces outdoor living and creates a welcoming connection between the house and beautifully maintained grounds. Inside, the floor plan flows effortlessly while offering well-defined spaces for both everyday living and entertaining. The main level features the owner's suite, formal dining room, and a versatile sunroom that can function as a home office, den, playroom, hobby room, or additional living space. Three bedrooms provide flexibility for family, guests, or work-from-home needs.

The perfectly level, landscaped lawn provides plenty of usable outdoor space, while a storage barn at the rear of the property offers additional room for tools, lawn equipment, hobbies, and seasonal items.

An oversized 2-car garage with workshop area provides valuable space for vehicles, projects, and equipment. Beneath the home, the fully concreted crawl space adds an impressive amount of clean, accessible storage, an uncommon feature that significantly expands the home's functionality.

Having had only two owners since construction, this well-maintained property reflects years of thoughtful care. Its peaceful location places you minutes from the Tri-Cities, Southwest Virginia, Rogersville, and I-26 access, making it convenient to Johnson City, Kingsport, Bristol, and surrounding Northeast Tennessee communities.

This unique home will capture your attention from the moment you arrive, with its welcoming presence, thoughtful design, and undeniable Southern charm.
