Description

If you're looking for a little more space, a little more privacy, and beautiful East Tennessee views, you'll want to see this one.

This new home offers 1,940 square feet of comfortable, one-level living on a spacious 0.56-acre lot in one of Jonesborough's newest neighborhoods. Surrounded by rolling farmland, it offers a peaceful setting while still being just minutes from shopping, dining, healthcare, and all the conveniences of both Jonesborough and Johnson City.

The open floor plan makes everyday living easy, with the kitchen overlooking the living and dining areas so family and friends can comfortably gather together. The split-bedroom design gives everyone a little privacy, while the spacious primary suite features double vanities, a soaking tub, separate shower, and a large walk-in closet. Two additional bedrooms and a full bath are located on the opposite side of the home.

One of the things you'll appreciate most about this neighborhood is the setting. The homesites are generous, the scenery is beautiful, and there's room to breathe. Whether you're enjoying your morning coffee on the front porch or taking in the pastoral views at the end of the day, you'll love coming home.

There is also something special about buying from a builder whose reputation has been built right here at home. For more than 30 years, the locally owned builder has been constructing homes for Northeast Tennessee families using local craftsmen and tradespeople, and continues to stand behind every home long after closing.

If you're looking for quality construction, beautiful surroundings, and a convenient location, we'd love to show you around.
