Description

From the moment you step inside, you'll feel right at home in this charming two-bedroom cottage. Thoughtfully updated while maintaining its inviting character, this home is truly move-in ready and offers the perfect blend of comfort and peace of mind.

The welcoming interior features luxury vinyl plank flooring, butcher block countertops, stainless steel appliances, and a cozy eat-in kitchen that's ready for everything from your morning coffee to family dinners. Natural light fills the home, creating a warm and comfortable space you'll love coming home to.

The current owners have also taken care of many of the big-ticket improvements, including a new HVAC system with all new ductwork, a new water line from the home to the street, and a new gutter system with leaf guards. Step out back and you'll find a private, fenced backyard that's perfect for relaxing or entertaining. Gather around the fire pit on cool evenings, let kids or pets play, and enjoy the convenience of a brand-new 7' x 7' storage shed for all your outdoor essentials.

Conveniently located just minutes from shopping, dining, schools, and downtown Kingsport, this home offers the charm of a cozy cottage with the confidence of so many important updates already completed. All that's left to do is unpack and start making memories.Buyer an buyer's agent to verify all information.
