Description

Investor special on approximately 4.7 acres in Elizabethton. The house has been fully gutted and is ready for renovation, redesign or redevelopment. Set near the top of a hill, the property offers a private setting with a cleared area around the home and wooded acreage beyond. Bring your plans and vision to restore the existing structure or explore other possibilities, subject to local approvals. Offered in its current condition.

Irregular acreage features rolling slopes, a forested hillside, partially cleared ground and ownership of a portion of Weaver Branch Creek. The land provides a mix of open and wooded space. Buyers should verify acreage, boundaries, utilities, permitted uses and renovation requirements.
