Description

Don't miss this exceptional opportunity to own a well located duplex in Grundy, Virginia! Situated just steps from the Appalachian School of Law, this property offers an ideal location for investors looking for rental potential in a convenient and desirable area.

The duplex features two spacious 2-bedroom, 1-bath units, providing two separate living spaces under one roof. With approximately 2,312 square feet, the property offers plenty of room for comfortable living while providing an attractive setup for rental income or multi-generational living. The property was built in 2000 and includes a garage underneath, offering secure parking and valuable additional storage space.

Additional features include paved parking, metal roofing, vinyl siding, heat-pump heating and cooling, public water, septic, and laundry areas on the lower level. Appliances including refrigerators and ranges are also listed with the property.

Location is a major advantage! The property is conveniently located near the Appalachian School of Law and is only minutes from downtown Grundy, shopping, restaurants, medical facilities, and other everyday conveniences. Its proximity to the law school makes this an especially interesting opportunity for an investor seeking a property in an area with potential rental demand.
