Description

Welcome to 324 Locust Hill! This property could be a great opportunity for someone looking to build, invest, or simply own a piece of land in a quiet area. The lot is currently wooded, providing privacy and plenty of potential for future development. There are two graded areas for building and a driveway dug out. Public water and sewer is connected as well as power pole with electrical connection per seller. Unfinished storage building is also located on the property. This property is located just minutes from the Hard Rock Casino and downtown Bristol. The location is very desirable! Info taken by third party and tax records, Buyers to verify intended use, utilities, zoning, and building requirements.
