Description

Enjoy peaceful country living on approximately 13 acres of rolling Greene County land. The property features a single-story home with a freshly painted interior, new flooring, inviting porch spaces, and a comfortable layout ready for its next owner.

The open field is currently maintained for hay, adding to the property's rural charm and agricultural appeal. A large powered outbuilding offers ample space for a workshop, equipment, vehicles, or storage, while a coop and additional shed with electricity provide even more flexibility. The property also includes a well with a new pump, and a second septic system and electricity at a former homesite.

With plenty of room to spread out, useful improvements, and a convenient location near Greeneville, this property offers an appealing combination of privacy and potential. Contact the listing agent for additional details or to schedule a private showing.
