Description

Please do not walk the property without a prior approved showing to not disturb any potential tenants. Discover a unique opportunity to own a cozy retreat with room to grow! This approximately 481-square-foot, 2-bedroom, 1.5-bath home is situated on approximately 1.35 acres and offers a surprisingly functional layout with a living room, kitchen, stacked laundry, two bedrooms, and an upstairs loft that provides additional sleeping quarters or flexible space for guests.

Enjoy the approximately 140-square-foot covered front porch, perfect for morning coffee, relaxing evenings, or taking in the peaceful surroundings. The property also features a second potential build site, offering possibilities for future expansion, an additional dwelling, guest accommodations, or another investment opportunity, subject to applicable approvals.

Location is a major highlight! The property is approximately 1.5 miles from Johnson County Airport, making it particularly convenient for visitors coming to the area for events and activities at the airport. Outdoor enthusiasts will appreciate the close proximity to Doe Mountain Recreation Area, with trail access available nearby at R&D Campground.

For those who work from home or want to stay connected while enjoying a more relaxed setting, the property offers high-speed internet and good cell service, making remote work a realistic option.

The home is also being offered fully furnished if the buyer desires, providing an excellent turnkey opportunity for a personal getaway, vacation property, guest retreat, or investment property.

Whether you're searching for a peaceful place to call home, a convenient basecamp for exploring Northeast Tennessee, or a property with additional build potential, this unique offering deserves a closer look. Come see the possibilities for yourself!
