Description

One-level living with mountain views, soaring ceilings, and outdoor spaces made for relaxing! If you've been looking for a home that offers comfort, convenience, and just the right amount of space, 259 Alpine Trail deserves a closer look.

The open living area makes an immediate impression with 12-foot ceilings, a gas-log fireplace, and a natural flow between the kitchen, dining, and great room. The thoughtful split-bedroom floor plan places all three bedrooms and two full baths on the main level, including a spacious primary suite with a walk-in closet, jetted tub, and separate shower.

But some of the best living spaces are just outside. The 18' x 15' screened porch is a wonderful place to enjoy the mountain views, morning coffee, or a quiet evening by the wood stove. An adjoining sun deck with privacy screening and a covered lower-level patio offer even more ways to enjoy the outdoors.

And there's more space than you might expect! In addition to the 1,671 square feet of finished living area, the home features approximately 817 square feet of unfinished basement space, including a workshop with 220-volt power, additional storage with a roll-up access door, and plumbing roughed in for a future bath.

With an attached two-car garage, a 2023 heating and cooling system, and a low-maintenance brick and composite exterior, this home offers practical features that make everyday life easier.

Located in the Kingsport City School District with convenient access to both Kingsport and Johnson City, 259 Alpine Trail combines the ease of main-level living with the mountain views and outdoor spaces that make a house feel like home.
