The home features a low-maintenance all-brick exterior and metal roof, both reported to be in great condition. Inside, you'll find real wood trim throughout, a distinctive rounded front door, and hardwood floors in the bedrooms that could be beautifully refinished to restore their original character.

The main level is heated and cooled with mini-split systems, with window units upstairs. The basement offers a drive-under one-car garage plus plenty of additional storage or workshop space.

Outside, you'll appreciate the large lot, fenced backyard, and multiple parking areas, with room for vehicles in both the front and rear of the property. The backyard provides plenty of space for pets, recreation, gardening, or entertaining.

Located in a convenient Weber City location with access to highly regarded area schools, shopping, dining, and everyday necessities, this property offers plenty of possibilities for homeowners and investors alike.

With recent improvements, a reduced price, a large lot, and investment potential, this one deserves another look! Schedule your showing today.
