Description

When mountain views are a must-have and room to spread out is equally important, this South Greene County property offers a wonderful opportunity on more than 5 acres. With space for horses, a mini farm, or simply enjoying the privacy and beauty of the surrounding countryside, this property offers both versatility and scenic designs. Inside, the home features updated flooring and appliances, a roof approximately two years old, and an HVAC system approximately eight years old. The well-appointed kitchen offers a butcher-block island and views of the surrounding mountains. The spacious bedrooms provide comfortable living and ample closet space, while the primary suite features dual vanities along with a tub and separate shower. Crown molding adds a finished touch throughout the home. The living room features a fireplace with gas logs and a large TV, creating a comfortable space for relaxing or watching your favorite football team on game day. GO VOLS! A convenient laundry room includes a utility sink and storage closet. Step outside to enjoy the front porch or back deck while taking in pastoral views and the surrounding wildlife. The barn is equipped with separate electric and water service, offering flexibility for animal use, storage, or a hobby/workshop space. A carport provides covered parking, while the metal storage shed conveys with the property. With acreage, mountain views, and useful outbuildings, this property offers a unique opportunity to enjoy country living in South Greene County while remaining within reach of local amenities. Buyer to verify all information and measurements. Red storage building does not convey.
