Description

Escape to the mountains with this beautiful 28-acre wooded tract in the Butler, Tennessee area. Tucked away in a peaceful Appalachian mountain setting, this property offers privacy, natural beauty, mountain views, and the opportunity to own a sizable piece of East Tennessee countryside.

The property features two streams running through the land, adding to the natural beauty and character of the property. An old logging road runs through the property, providing an existing path through the wooded acreage and adding to the property's rustic mountain character. A gravel road provides access back to the property, allowing you to reach this secluded mountain setting while still enjoying access to the surrounding area.

Outdoor enthusiasts will appreciate the property's location near the Appalachian Trail and its setting within the Cherokee National Forest area, providing access to the incredible natural beauty and recreational opportunities of the surrounding Appalachian Mountains.

The land is predominantly wooded and undeveloped, making it a great opportunity for someone looking for privacy, recreation, a mountain retreat, or simply a beautiful piece of land to enjoy for years to come.
