Description

Welcome to 621 Keene Circle in Dandridge! This well-maintained home offers plenty of space, useful updates, and a convenient East Tennessee location just minutes from Douglas Lake and I-40. Recent improvements include a new HVAC system, new water heater, and new dishwasher, giving the next owner added peace of mind.

Enjoy outdoor living on the low-maintenance Trex back deck overlooking the backyard, plus a 16x12 storage building offering plenty of room for lawn equipment, tools, hobbies, or extra storage. The basement foundation has been professionally serviced by AFS and includes a transferable warranty.

A wheelchair-accessible ramp provides easy entry into the home and is also incredibly convenient for bringing in groceries, strollers, or other everyday items. For buyers who don't need it, the ramp can simply be removed.

Located in Dandridge with quick access to I-40 and approximately 4 miles from Douglas Lake access, this home puts boating, fishing, and outdoor recreation close by while still providing an easy commute to Morristown, Sevierville, Pigeon Forge, and Knoxville. A great combination of location, updates, storage, and functionality--come see what 621 Keene Circle has to offer!

One bedroom with closet and nearly finished bathroom is ready to finish out as your fourth bedroom!
