Made for gathering and entertaining, the remodeled kitchen features a large island, farmhouse apron-front sink, double ovens, cooktop with vent hood, updated appliances and dimmable recessed lighting. A fireplace brings warmth and character to the main living space, while new flooring, solid interior doors, fresh paint and trim, crown molding, refreshed bathrooms, and unique updated lighting and fan fixtures add style and personality throughout.

The lower level offers even more room to gather and unwind, with a second fireplace anchoring the comfortable den and pool room. A fourth bedroom and half bath add flexibility for guests, a home office or additional living space, with direct access to the two-car garage and convenient laundry area.

Outdoor living is just as inviting with a rebuilt covered deck featuring lighting, ceiling fans and roller shades for added comfort and privacy. Create your own open-air theater for movie nights under the stars, entertain friends or simply unwind while enjoying the sunset. The level backyard offers plenty of room to play, gather around a fire and roast marshmallows. Out front, beautiful mountain views provide the backdrop for spectacular morning sunrises.
