The main level offers a spacious living room with fireplace, while the lower level features an additional den with another fireplace, providing multiple gathering spaces throughout the home. The newly remodeled kitchen features beautiful granite countertops and offers a fresh, updated space for cooking and entertaining. You'll also find nice new flooring throughout much of the home, along with numerous updates and remodeling that give the property a fresh, modern feel.

Step outside and take in the awesome mountain views! The backyard offers plenty of space and an exciting bonus--a former in-ground swimming pool remains in place. The pool would require work before being used again, but it presents an opportunity for the next owner to restore it and create an incredible outdoor entertaining area. All information has been taken from tax records and should be verified by buyer and buyers agent.
