Description

Beautifully restored with timeless character and everyday functionality, this downtown Erwin home offers a unique opportunity to enjoy historic charm, modern updates, and an incredibly convenient location. From the curb, the wood-and-stone covered front porch immediately stands out, showcasing classic Craftsman-style details and cedar shutters, while offering beautiful mountain views, an inviting spot to enjoy your morning coffee or unwind at the end of the day.

Inside, the foyer welcomes you into a bright and spacious main living area. The living room flows naturally into the formal dining room, where generous windows and wide doorways create an inviting sense of openness. The kitchen maintains its vintage appeal with beadboard wainscoting while incorporating updated features including cabinetry, butcher block countertops, appliances, and flooring.

Additional highlights include a deck overlooking the backyard, a fenced backyard, a new metal roof, detached garage, and unfinished basement offering extra space for storage or future use.

One of the home's greatest advantages is its downtown location. The Erwin Farmers Market is conveniently located right across the street, and many of Erwin's local attractions, shops, restaurants, and community amenities are within easy walking distance. Spend time at Gathering Place Park, explore local antique shops, visit the farmers market, or stop in at one of the area's cafés, all without having to get behind the wheel. Outdoor enthusiasts will also appreciate the home's proximity to the Appalachian Trail and the Nolichucky River, known for its exciting rafting opportunities.

Combining character, convenience, mountain views, and an inviting downtown setting, this Erwin home offers a lifestyle that's hard to replicate and is ready to be enjoyed.
