Description

Welcome to 3220 Ashley Street, where space, versatility, and privacy come together to create your own private oasis! This home features an inviting open-concept layout with plenty of room for everyday living and entertaining. The newly remodeled basement offers additional finished living space along with the possibility of adding another bathroom, giving the next owner even more flexibility.

Outside, this property truly stands out. The upper driveway was completed in 2023 and provides additional parking with plenty of space for an RV or boat. A 30-amp RV hookup is already in place, making it convenient for recreational vehicles. Car enthusiasts, hobbyists, or anyone needing extra storage will appreciate the spacious three-car garage, complete with garage doors replaced in 2023.

Enjoy the outdoors with multiple raised garden beds and a variety of established fruit trees, creating a wonderful setting for gardening, entertaining, or simply relaxing at home. With generous parking, abundant garage space, updated features, and a peaceful outdoor setting, this property offers a unique combination of comfort and functionality while still being conveniently located in Kingsport.

Come see all the possibilities 3220 Ashley Street has to offer!
