Description

Some homes are defined by their architecture. Others by their setting. This exceptional Preston Park residence brings the two together, with a design that embraces its remarkable views from morning light to the glow of evening.

Inside, beautifully proportioned spaces create an effortless balance between gracious entertaining and comfortable everyday living. The main level brings together elegant formal rooms, an inviting den, private office, and a serene primary suite--allowing the essentials of daily life to unfold on one level.

Privacy has been thoughtfully considered throughout the home. Each additional bedroom enjoys its own private bath, creating comfortable accommodations for family and overnight guests.

Beyond the principal living spaces, the home reveals another side of its character. A heated pool provides a private setting for summer afternoons and evening gatherings, while the recreation room and dedicated theater offer year-round spaces for entertaining and relaxing.

Yet the defining feature remains the setting itself. The view becomes a natural backdrop to the home--changing with the seasons, the weather, and the light. It is equally compelling over morning coffee, during an afternoon by the pool, or as the landscape gives way to evening.

Spacious without sacrificing warmth, sophisticated without feeling formal, this is a home designed not simply to impress, but to be lived in and enjoyed.

Providence Point, a remarkable home. An extraordinary setting. And a view you may never tire of. This property will go live on Sunday Sept 27.
